Miller Media Release – Condor G-Series Series selected as an AE50 Outstanding Innovation

The Miller Condor G40 & G75 Series product has been selected as an AE50 winner for 2010. The award, sponsored by American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers (ASABE) Resource magazine, recognizes the top 50 innovative new products produced in 2009. The Condor G-Series product description will be included in the March/April issue of the magazine.

The awards were announced during a presentation at the ASABE

Agricultural Equipment Technology Conference (AETC) in Orlando, Florida on Monday, January 11 at 5:15 pm. In attendance to accept the award on behalf of Miller were Bob Schnell, Tim Criddle, John Arden, and Roy Bassett.

The winning products were also be highlighted at the new AgConnect Expo on the following Tuesday. This major farm show, sponsored by AEM, attracted an audience of top producers from both the US and overseas, generating great exposure for the award winning Condor G-Series sprayers.
